708 Board Lets Clinic Continue on 3-1 Vote

(Editorial on Page 32)

Open antagonism by Edwin F. Reiske to mental health services was repudiated Tuesday night by the Madison County Mental Health (Law 708) Board, which voted 3-1 to restore $13,854 of funds slashed earlier from the Quad-City Center.

The effect of the decision was to enable the local counseling clinic to continue basic operations. Otherwise, it would have had to issue staff layoff notices June 1 for July 1 through the end of the fiscal year Nov. 30.

Reiske told the gathering of 70 at the County Courthouse that part of his opposition is based on his belief that St. Elizabeth Hospital of Granite City is profiting from the mental health clinic.

Actually, the opposite is true, the meeting was told later: St. Elizabeth has offered free room to the Quad-City Center under specified situations.

Reiske indicated that as a 708 member he wants greater control over the center, which has its own governing board, headed by Chairman John Blina and Vice-Chairman Bill Burns. Referring to the clinic, Reiske said, "The only time they come here is when they want money."

Reiske, who has given his version of mental health issues at sparsely-attended Trades and Labor Council meetings, claimed unanimous labor support for forcing clinic layoffs.

He said he is suspicious of a national trend under which fewer patients are incarcerated within state hospitals. Many such patients have resumed their role in society, periodically obtaining counseling at outpatient clinics.

Accusing Alton State Hospital of "dumping" patients on Madison County to increase the county tax burden, Reiske said the Alton hospital has reduced its patient load from 2,300 to 500 in 1968. "They don't talk about that; they just tell the public what they want to let it know," he asserted.

It was later noted that in transferring some functions to counties, the state has provided

Nameoki Seeking More Hydrants from District

Louis Whitsell, Nameoki Township supervisor, Monday night criticized the Long Lake Fire Protection District, the tax body which funds the Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department, for allegedly holding unannounced meetings and for not ordering a public audit of district expenditures.

The supervisor made the comments during a Nameoki Township Board meeting. On Tuesday, Thomas Dudeney, president of the fire district, replied that such charges are unfounded.

Whitsell said that town board members have been attempting "for some time" to attend the meetings of the fire protection district to request installation of additional fire hydrants in Nameoki Township. Despite repeated requests, the three trustees have not notified Town board members when meetings were scheduled, he said.

"I object to the way they hold their secret meetings," Whitsell said. He emphasized that public tax bodies are required by law to open their meetings to the public and to announce when meetings are to be held.

Dudeney said, however, that notices of the meetings are always posted outside the Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department prior to the meetings and that notice of the annual meeting is posted in 10 locations. "As for calling him (Whitsell) and letting him know when we are meeting, we are not required to do so," Dudeney said. "No one ever has contacted us about our meetings. 'We usually meet at the fire hall and there have never been any secret meetings.'"

Audit Not Required
Whitsell also charged the district trustees have had no public audit of funds during the past year. Dudeney said that Nick Vassileff, attorney for the fire district, informed the trustees they were not required to make a public audit. Vassileff said it is necessary only to publish a financial report, which was done two weeks ago.

Whitsell also criticized the district expenditures as published. He said that of $17,552 collected last year, $13,550 was spent for a service contract.

"We don't know what this is for," he commented. Dudeney replied that the money was spent for the services of the Long Lake Fire Department, the funding of which is the main purpose of the district.

Whitsell also assailed a tax

Rev. McKeogh St. Elizabeth Pastor 31 Years; Relocation Of Parish Occurred in 1950s

On Aug. 21-28 Granite Cityans will celebrate the city's 75th anniversary and the 50th year of the Granite City park district. This is the 14th in a series on local history.

This article completes the 100-year history of the St. Elizabeth Catholic parish. In the next issue, the general area history will be resumed.

Father Spaeth was forced to leave by ill health and was replaced by Fr. Peter Kaenders on Nov. 20, 1890. One of the things Fr. Kaenders accomplished during his stay at Mitchell was the completion of a two-story frame rectory at a cost of $2,600. At its completion, it became his residence.

Fr. Kaenders moved and was succeeded by Fr. Herlitz in the latter part of 1895. Fr. Herlitz remained as pastor until his death.

After his death, Fr. Meehan came to Mitchell as pastor until 1890. Following Fr. Meehan came Fr. Dietrick in 1891 and then Fr. Charles Kuhlman.

After Fr. Kuhlman's departure, St. Elizabeth's became a mission once again, attended by Fr. Zabel from Bunker Hill, Ill.

In 1893, the Rev. John W. Mercher was appointed pastor and remained until July 1898, when the Rev. Francis Myers assumed charge. During this time, a parish hall was built.

The major differences between the parish in the current era and at the turn of the century were these:

Spotlight on Sanitary, Storm Sewers

Authority for the city street department to build an access road to the dead end of Morgan Street, north of Roosevelt Avenue, was given Street Superintendent Lionell Portell by the city council Monday night, a few hours after a drenching rain hit the Quad-City area and turned Roosevelt Avenue into a quagmire.

The move to aid Morgan Street residents was only one of many stormwater drainage problems to confront the council as the result of the Monday afternoon downpour that dropped .72 of an inch of rain within a short time. Roosevelt Avenue now is being graded in preparation for paving under a motor fuel tax project and its muddy condition after the rain prevented Morgan Street residents from entering or leaving the street.

Among other problems was the flooding of Lynch Avenue and Vesel Avenue in North Granite which brought demands from Alderman Emerald Davies that the city take steps to expedite the planned drainage program for the Doherty Slough area by the Illinois State Division of Waterways.

"Something has to be done now," Davies said. "These people have gone through a lot (the north section) goes into a 2-inch drain. Any pressure we can put on the governor or the state officials should be developed now."

Mayor Donald Partney emphasized

MISSED MOTORIST abandoned this car at the edge of Roosevelt Avenue on McKinley Street after Monday's heavy rain turned Roosevelt into a sea of mud. Roosevelt Avenue is being graded in preparation for paving and installation of curb and guttering as a city motor fuel tax project. The 72-inch rain isolated residents along Morgan Street causing city officials to authorize construction of a temporary access road.

A tentative agreement under which the four townships of the Quad-City area will plan a vast sanitary sewer system to serve unserved sections of Nameoki, Venice and Chouteau townships was reached Tuesday night in a meeting of city, township and planning officials in the city hall here.

Further planning of the project will await action by the Granite City council on an agreement of cooperation between the four townships and the city of Granite City involving projected use of Granite City sewage treatment facilities as the outlet for the proposed township lines.

Granite City now is planning construction of a secondary sewage treatment plant and interceptor sewers at an estimated cost of $13.3 million. Engineers of M. W. Architects-Engineers, Inc., St. Louis, who are planning the city project, said provision is being made for a treatment volume sufficient to serve the areas outside Granite City.

The combined four-township sewer program is being developed by a Madison County Board of Supervisors Committee consisting of the supervisors of the four townships—Nelson Hagnauer of Granite City, Arthur "Cooper" Moore of Venice, Louis Whitsell of Nameoki and Walter Sparks of Chouteau—and Harold Landolt, county Board chairman.

Need GC Treatment
The plan was discussed generally in Tuesday night's meeting with all of the township officials in agreement as to the need of sewerage in their respective areas, and in agreement on the point that Granite City treatment facilities would have to be used to make the project financially feasible.

Supervisor Sparks of Chouteau said the project would be financed by bonds.

The annual Disabled American Veterans "Parade of Flags" and special services at the Madison American Legion Post 307 in Venice, will highlight Granite City Hall and Venice.

Services in Granite City will begin at 9 a.m. Sunday at city hall where a flag ceremony and a moment of silent prayer will be followed by invocation by Lieutenant Donald R. Noyes of the Salvation Army. Taps will be played and veterans or organizations will place a memorial wreath.

Following the service, members of Quad-City Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops will join marching units of the Disabled American Veterans and auxiliary, the Veterans of Foreign Wars and auxiliary, the American Legion, Amvets, the Navy Mothers of Granite City, the Daughters of the Republic of Granite City, a Marine color guard and a firing squad from Scott Air Force Base, for the annual parade.

To Post Flags
Marchers will meet at the DAV Hall on 19th Street after the City hall ceremony and will march to Memorial Park, Niedringhaus and Madison avenues, to post the flags. Ceremonies at the park will be sponsored by Sarah Jane McEwers Tent No. 90 of the Daughters of Union Veterans.

The Venice-Madison American Legion Post 307 also will hold special memorial services beginning at 2 p.m. on the front lawn of the post home at 740 Broadway. Crosses symbolizing American war dead have been placed around the tomb on the lawn.

Venice Power Plant to Use Low Sulfur Coal

Union Electric Co. on Tuesday accepted a stipulation that it will convert its Venice and Cahokia power plants to low sulfur coal by the end of 1972 to curb sulfur dioxide pollution.

The Missouri Air Conservation Commission granted permission to the utility to violate sulfur dioxide restrictions at its Portage des Sioux power plant in St. Charles County, ruling there is no feasible way to control sulfur dioxide discharges there at the present state of technology.

Blast Furnace, Other Steel Operations Being Reviewed in Detail During Pollution Hearings

The Blast Furnace Division, one of the chief problems of Granite City Steel Co. in its efforts to improve the environment, has been the center of much of the discussion at Illinois Pollution Control Board hearings here.

Hearings are scheduled to resume at 9:30 a.m. next Tuesday, June 1, and possibly continue on June 2, 10, 11, 17 and 18 at the City Hall in Granite City.

The case involves Granite City Steel Co. vs. the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency. Hearing officer is Samuel Lawton Jr. and prosecutor is Herbert Caplan, chief of environmental control for the attorney general.

One of the principal witnesses has been Professor Erwin C. Hoelscher, technical secretary of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

Caplan questioned Hoelscher in detail about the operation of a blast furnace.

The pollution official explained that iron ore, coke and limestone are carried to the top of the furnace and are heated while high-pressure heated air is forced in at the bottom. "The heat separates and liquefies until molten iron is on the bottom and the limestone and waste are at the top."

He said that in moving the raw materials and charging the furnace, dust can escape into the atmosphere.

Carbon monoxide and other waste gases collect at the top of a blast furnace, he explained, and they are usually collected, with no emissions resulting, to be burned to heat the air blown into the furnace.

On occasion, he added, the system collects more gases than it can handle and there is "a large release of excess gases and wastes through the safety valve."

The molten iron is poured into a railroad car and fumes are emitted when the hot metal hits the side of the cold car, he said.

When asked if he had ever seen the blast furnace at Granite City Steel Co., Hoelscher replied, "a blast furnace is not something that is easily hid."

Caplan questioned the operation of a boiler house and Hoelscher explained that the facility uses natural gas, oil or blast furnace gas to generate steam. The smokestack usually emits smoke "which I have seen," Hoelscher said.

John Sullivan, a defense attorney, objected to the boiler house being included in testimony, as it was not one of the facilities listed in the revised EPA complaint charging the company with pollution of the air.

Lawton ruled that the testimony could be heard and later it would be decided if the complaint should be amended to include the boiler house or if the boiler house at Granite City Steel could be construed as part of the Blast Furnace Division, already named in the complaint.

Testimony also was given by the city officer on the operation of basic oxygen furnaces.

He explained that the BOF turns molten iron and scrap metal into steel by introducing pure oxygen into the molten metal, causing "a rapid reaction which burns out impurities."

Hoelscher related that "2,000-degree heat rises with carbon monoxide, carbon particles and other particles."

He explained that gases and particles from the BOF are usually collected by a hood and are run through an electrostatic precipitator which removes "less than 100% of the particulate matter" when working properly.

As molten steel is removed from the basic oxygen furnace, the mouth of the furnace is turned down to pour. When it is turned, the mouth is outside of the hood which collects the emissions, Hoelscher alleged, and not all of the gases are collected.

The gas not collected escapes into the atmosphere either from emergency vents or through the top of the building, he testified, adding that he had seen both happen several times.

Commenting on disposal of waste material from the furnaces, a process called slag-ging, Hoelscher said that, often, particulate matter is released into the air during this process. Caplan questioned the witness on the blooming and rolling mills. Steel is rolled into sheets, Hoelscher noted in briefly describing the operation.

Asked if he had seen any pollution from GC Steel blooming or rolling facilities, Hoelscher replied, "I have not seen any."

He commented that, if fuel is not burned properly in the powerhouse, heavy smoke is produced, a statement to which the defense attorney strongly objected on the grounds that the powerhouse was not named in the amended complaint as one of the facilities charged with pollution.

The hearing examiner withheld rulings on the facilities not named in the complaint until Caplan could finish the line of questioning, at which time he plans to rule on the entire series dealing with steelmaking in general to its admissibility.

The projector asked Hoelscher if he could recall specific dates on which he recorded pollution emissions from Granite City Steel facilities and the pollution officer introduced a list of 21 dates and times when he allegedly recorded smoke emissions. He described what facility at the plant appeared to be involved in each instance. He said some complaints from the public relate to hydrogen sulfide but that the majority deals with heavy iron dust, such as might be emitted by a BOF, sintering plant or soaking pit. Such dust imbeds in paint and rusts to form small reddish circles, Hoelscher said.

Caplan ended his questioning and Sullivan opened by asking a series of questions as to whether better pollution control devices are commercially available for coke ovens and quenching towers.

Hoelscher said he knows of none except a baffle system for quenching towers which has been suggested in trade literature.

He also said he discussed the problems of coke plants and of charging of ovens with Lyle F. Guley, president of Granite City Steel Co.

Guley told him a crash research project is being conducted to solve many of the problems within three years, Hoelscher reported.

Sullivan asked about Hoelscher's last inspection of coke ovens as an official of the city air pollution control board. Hoelscher answered that he had seen the ovens to be within or close to specifications.

the city air pollution control board. Hoelscher answered that he had seen the ovens to be within or close to specifications.

Hoelscher said he called Har- tie Love, technical coordinator for environmental systems at the company, and asked if he could see an automatic monitoring report on the coke oven flare stack, a large flaming stack which burns off many gases and hydrogen sulfide. He testified that Love told him the monitoring system, recording whether the flame is extinguished, had been inoperative for six months.

Hoelscher said the monitor had been installed at the request of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board and that the steel company was responsible for its maintenance.

Steel company lawyers are expected to resume their attempted rebuttal of Hoelscher's allegations when the hearing resumes June 1 in the City Hall courtroom.

When EPA attorneys first called Hoelscher to the stand, Sullivan and Attorney Randall Robertson objected that he was not among the witnesses listed in the prepared list which both prosecution and defense attorneys were required to submit prior to the hearing.

"The purpose of the list was that there would be no surprises," Robertson declared. Lawton ruled that Sullivan and Robertson should be given time to question Hoelscher before he was introduced as a witness.

Thweatt Convicted Of U.S. Gun Charge

Terry Thweatt, 43, of Rural Route One, Granite City, was freed of a $10,000 cash bond yesterday after a federal court jury in Springfield found him guilty of violating the U.S. Gun Control Act.

Thweatt was arrested with a .22 caliber pistol May 23, 1970, at Tany & Joe's Restaurant, 1500 Third St., Madison, and charged with unlawful use of a weapon and aggravated battery. He allegedly held several customers at gunpoint and then resisted arrest, according to police.

The trial began Monday morning and the jury returned a guilty verdict at 10:45 p.m. Tuesday. J. William Roberts, assistant U.S. Attorney, prosecuted on information gathered by agents of the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Division of the U.S. Treasury Department.

The trial was conducted by Federal Judge Omar Poole.

In 1954, Thweatt was convicted in the Third Judicial Circuit Court of Madison County of a charge of possession of burglary tools. Under the Gun Control Act of 1968 it is a federal offense for a person convicted of a felony to carry a gun. Judge Poole gave Maug two weeks in which to file post trial motions before sentencing. Thweatt could be fined up to $5,000 or sentenced to a maximum of two years in prison, or both.

Three Youths Caught In Gasoline Deal

Three youths who purchased $4 worth of gasoline at the Olympic Service Station, 26th and Adams Streets, and tried to leave without paying for it were caught by an attendant and Granite City and Madison police. The report was at 9:55 p.m. Tuesday.

It was determined that their auto had been stolen in Tennessee by one of them, a 14-year-old runaway from Tennessee. The other two, 16 and 19, were questioned and were released. The youngest was held for juvenile authorities.

out apparent errors in the numbering of slides.

Several times it was pointed out that, when defense attorneys referred to a certain numbered slide, they were actually referring to a different slide than the one which the EPA referred to by the same number.

The problem was not completely resolved and led to confusion during defense and cross-examination periods.

The defense is expected to call Donald Cairns, assistant to the president of the company, to the stand after concluding with Hoelscher.

sized, however, that the program by the state waterways division for installation of the Doherty Slough area is being delayed temporarily by the refusal of two property owners between the Alton & Southern tracks in Nameoki township and Horse-shoe Lake to relinquish easements necessary to the work.

The mayor said condemnation proceedings have been authorized by the levee district, and that "this may take time." The state waterways division has agreed to spend approximately $100,000 in an effort to solve the drainage problem in the Doherty Slough area of Nameoki township which, in turn, will greatly aid the drainage problem of Lynch and Vesel Avenues from which stormwater flows into the Doherty Slough area.

The action to aid residents along Morgan Street was taken on a motion by Alderman Walter Nomm who told the council: "Fellows, we've really got trouble out there. Those people on Morgan Street can't get in or out. Roosevelt Avenue has them trapped in. It's a sea of mud. If we had another rain out there tonight or tomorrow, we could float a battleship."

He said Portell had conferred with state highway officials at French Village and had been informed that an access to Morgan Street could be taken from FA Route 151, but the city council would have to sign a liability waiver to cover potential accidents occurring from entry or egress of Morgan Street residents onto the highway.

Mayor Partney said he would refuse to sign any such waiver. Nomm and Portell suggested an access road could be built temporarily from the dead end of Morgan Street to the city hospital over property now controlled by the Morris Real Estate Agency. The council approved the effort. Yesterday Portell said he had obtained permission from Ralph Morris of the real estate firm to use the area for such access and that a temporary "alleyway" will be built immediately.

Fire Damages Apartment

Shrine Rabban Baker Speaker at GC Rotary

Harold G. Baker Jr., chief rabban of the Aired Shrine Temple, on Tuesday described the Masonic and Shrine programs and discussed the defunct circus to be held at Tri-City Speedway June 15-16 after a large parade in Granite City at 8 p.m. Monday, June 14.

Baker, an attorney who resides in Belleville, addressed Granite City Rotarians. He also reviewed the work of Shrine hospitals for crippled children and burns institutes.

The speaker was introduced by William Mehl, and Rotary President John Polson presided. The Rotary club will ride a fire engine in the Shrine parade.

ed a substantial fraction of the annual operating funds, said J. J. Gramlich, 708 Board president in the absence of Chairman J. J. Gramlich, who has been ill. Harry R. Johnson of Madison also was absent.

Votes to provide the funds were cast by the Rev. Dr. A. Ralph Lynn, Allan O. Claus and a new member, Sylvester Bugger. The "No" vote was by Reiske. An earlier tabling motion by Reiske failed to obtain a second.

An Alton Hospital spokesman pointed out that it serves 17 counties, not just Madison County.

William Daumiller, Quad-City Center director, testified that St. Elizabeth Hospital has offered free space for a day-care program. He said another program will permit the Quad-City and Alton clinics to cooperate with Alton State Hospital in outpatient treatment.

Marshall Smith, assistant state's attorney who advises the 708 Board, said 708 lacks authority to assume some of the hiring and expenditure powers Reiske has urged.

Summing up his fight to halt work by the clinic staff, Reiske charged that the clinic board "allows budget increases and we pay the taxes to take care of a state responsibility."

David Buchheim, 708 administrator, recommended that the funds be restored and said the Quad-City clinic meets accepted standards.

Madison Police Dept Study is OK'd by Council

The Madison City Council agreed to a $1,500 appropriation for a 25% share of the cost of an evaluation of the police department during a meeting Tuesday night.

The study at a cost of $6,000 would be made by the Illinois Regional Law Enforcement Commission and was deemed a necessity under new federal and state laws to qualify for federal and state law enforcement grants, it was pointed out by Mayor Mike Sasyk and John H. Gitchoff of the legal department.

Application for a $40,000 grant to help modernize the department has been submitted and approved by the regional commission and requires state approval. The regional office was hopeful of approval, the mayor said.

Of the amount, $30,000 is to be paid by the federal government and $10,000 by the state and is the maximum which can be obtained by the city.

Upgrade Department

The money would provide for two additional police officers, two additional police cars, equipment and modernization of methods during a period of a year, it was explained, and the grant is unrenueable.

Reports of the new survey would show the effectiveness of the program or point out the insufficiencies, accompanied with suggestions.

Upon receipt of a report of a survey conducted by the International Police Assn., last year the Madison department has been updating operations, including formation of juvenile and detective divisions.

West Madison Weeds

Authorization of a call for bids for purchase of a new tractor to cut high weeds around ball diamonds brought complaints from Fifth Ward Alderman John Haynes about growing weeds on lots in West Madison.

Haynes said he personally has paid for some of the clearing over the years. He added that the property owners "in Kinloch and University City won't come here to do the work."

It was suggested by several of the aldermen that bills be sent to the owners for weed cutting operations, and if they remain unpaid, liens be placed against the property. The problem was taken under advisement by the legal department.

Specifications for the gasoline tractor include a side-mounted sickle mower and a flair mower with a 72-inch cut. Bids will be opened on June 8.

The council employed Steve Shipchock and Albert Hudzik as desk clerks for the summer months to offset shortages of personnel during the vacation period. Shipchock will be a senior at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern and Hudzik will be a junior at the University of Illinois.

Fire Protection

Prior to adjournment, Second Ward Alderman Richard Kiser renewed the problem of fire protection for residents of unincorporated areas of Madison and a review of policy followed.

He noted that the Illinois Fire Inspection Bureau has placed a 10 rating for the city and a 10 rating for East Madison and Cloverleaf, causing higher insurance rates there.

Mayor Sasyk pointed out the liability and responsibility of the fire department has to city residents. Kiser asked for a formal service reservation clause which unincorporated residents could pay an annual fee for fire protection and that it be made mandatory.

Gitchoff noted that though the city has no resolution covering the service, it answers all calls in East Madison and Cloverleaf as a matter of policy.

Bills are often sent to property owners and many remain unpaid, it was claimed, but Second Ward Alderman Raymond Kozielek said that in such cases insurance companies pay the fee.

Kozielek also reminded that Kiser previously was instrumental in raising the fee from $150 to $250 for out-of-town calls.

As a comparison, it was noted that the Granite City department makes no out-of-town calls, while Venice covers Eagle Park Acres.

An annual report of the police pension board showed that receipts for the fiscal year ending April 30 totaled $54,657, disbursements were $3,672 and investments totaled $145,000.

The council approved an agreement with the state highway division to maintain arterial streets in the city for a fee of $625.78. One of the aldermen quipped, "We got a raise. Last year it was $500." But if it doesn't snow, you make a profit!"

teau township voiced the general opinion of the township officials in pointing out that he was certain that residents of Venice, Nameoki and Chouteau would be "very willing" to pay a sewer rental fee that would, over a period of time, actually pay for Granite City's cost in building the secondary treatment plant and in interceptor sewers.

While no details have yet been worked out, the supervisors suggested generally that if Granite City will go along with a plan to treat sewage from the neighboring townships, arrangements will be detailed for the townships to finance construction of the sanitary laterals and interceptors necessary for the township areas to reach the treatment plant.

Granite City Mayor Donald Partney expressed the view that Granite City could not be responsible for construction of any part of the system that would lie outside the corporate limits of the city.

Two representatives of the M. W. engineering firm—Aron A. Pierson and Ray C. Haller—attended the meeting and explained that present planning for Granite City's secondary treatment system permits sufficient expansion to accommodate the neighboring areas.

In addition to all five members of the county board commission, Mayor Partney and the M. W. engineers, those attending the discussion included Theodore Mikesik and Al Wilmarth of the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission; Terry Stachlik of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council; Edward Juneau of the engineering firm of Sheppard, Morgan & Schwab; City Clerk Robert Stevens, Granite City Aldermen Sam Whitmer, Paul Rutledge, Thomas Boiker and Paul Schuler, and Schooley.

Open Burning Stopped, EPA Hearing is Told

The Hyman Michaels Metals Co. of Venice has discontinued open burning of boxcars and will continue the no-burning policy indefinitely, representatives of the company told a public hearing by the Environmental Protection Agency in Madison Monday afternoon.

The hearing on pollution charges filed against the company opened at 9 a.m. and continued until 6 p.m. Testimony presented in the hearing was taken under advisement by Ralph Coletta of Peoria, hearing examiner for EPA.

Joel J. Sprayregen, Chicago, attorney for the company, told the hearing that Hyman-Michaels was issued a two-year permit for open burning by the former Illinois State Pollution Control Board and that the permit expired this month.

Ralph Michaels, president of the company, testified that no economical method of disposing of boxcars without burning has been found. If the practice of open burning is halted, recalcination companies will not purchase old boxcars and the nation's railroad tracks soon will become cluttered with abandoned cars, he said.

The hearing examiner will present his findings to the EPA in Springfield and a decision is expected later.

Gaines Sets For State Tennis Meet

Tennis Warrior Mike Gaines will represent Granite City High School at the championship tennis tournaments Friday and Saturday at the University of Illinois.

Gaines has competed in state finals the past two years in doubles competition, getting as far as the second round.

A senior with an impressive record of 15-2, he will face tough competition. Greg King of Libertyville, has won the state singles championship the past two years and will be returning. Billy Martin, Evanston, former national champion for 14-and-under, will be entering for the first time in singles.

Steve Briggs of Rock Island, doubles champion last year, will also be playing singles this year. Two hundred and sixteen high schools competed in district tournaments.

Evanston won the title in 1970 with Libertyville as runner-up.

45 Stocks, 25 Sprinters Expected For Student Night at Speedway

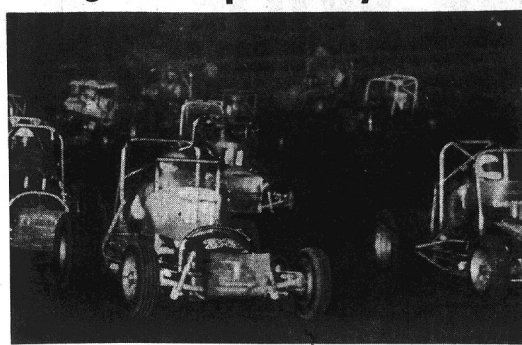

The largest field of late model stock cars ever to compete at the Tri-City Speedway is expected Friday night for "Student Night" at the local track.

Area high school and Southern Illinois University-southwestern students showing school identification cards will be admitted for $2, a 50-cent discount over the regular ticket price.

Between 30 and 45 stock cars are expected as drivers currently boycotting the Lake Hill Speedway in Valley Park, Mo., have indicated they may be on hand Friday. About 30 drivers are in a dispute with the management of the Missouri track. What was billed last week as the race to determine the "King of the Stocks" at the speedway between Wib Spalding of Granite City and Bill Myers of Rosewood Heights never came to pass as Myers' engine blew a head gasket during warm-ups last Friday.

Double Winner
Myers, who has won two feature races here this year, should give Spalding a battle as his winning 1970 Mustang (No. 21) is pitted against Spalding's new (No. 44) Camaro.

Another stocker to watch for will be the half Camaro-half Corvair, just completed by George Gruenfelder of Madison. Gruenfelder had the car ready to race last Friday but it was not finished. "It's one of the most beautiful cars I've ever seen," Roy Brammell, track announcer, said after seeing it this week. A larger pack of super sprint autos than competed last Friday night is expected as several of the drivers who skipped last week's event to enter Saturday's Little "500" super sprint car race at Anderson, Ind., have entered the lineup. At the Indiana race, Jerry Blundy, the International Motor Contest Assn. point leader and 1970 champion, damaged his auto in a flip but may be on hand in another sprint. Blundy has won two feature races here this year. He indicated that he has two other sprinters which he can place second in the late models and fourth in the sprinters last week, again will be entered in both categories. About 25 super sprint entries are expected. Qualifications will begin at 6:30 p.m. and racing will begin at 8 p.m. Drivers who have not completed qualifications by race time will be dropped to the rear of the pack of the Tnn, and Spalding, who semi-favorite event.

Amati Entered
Chuck "The One Armed Bandit" Amati of Greenfield, the semi-favorite event.

Warrior Trackmen Go for State Crowns Tomorrow

Warrior track coach Don Miller and his three state qualifiers, Don Smith, David Bell and Howard Bryant, left this morning for the University of Illinois for the last leg in the season-long climb to the state championships.

Smith earned his place by capturing the third position in the high jump event at the Alton District meet two weeks ago. His jump then was slightly over 6.3. A senior, Smith participated last year in the finals, jumping 6.5, but was eliminated in the preliminaries. His season best this year is 6-5 1/2.

Bell, a junior, pole vaulted 13 feet in the district and will be trying to clear 13.3, his season best. He was fifth in the district but his jump was adequate to qualify for the Champaign competition. This is his first time at the finals.

Sophomore Bryant, also on his first trip to Champaign, carries the Warriors hopes for a great season next year in the two-mile event. He was second in the district trailing Craig Virgin of Lebanon. Bryant finished the event in 9-47.4, his best effort of the year. "I think he can reach the school record of 9:31 at state if he really tries," Coach Miller commented. Last year Granite City sent six qualifiers to Champaign, the most in the school's history. Preliminary competition at the U. of I. stadium will begin at 11 a.m. tomorrow and will be followed immediately by the quarter-finals and semi-finals. Championship field events will begin at 9 a.m. Saturday and the finals will begin at noon.

1st Father-Son Dinner For Prather Athletes

The first annual recognition dinner honoring ninth grade athletes at Prather Junior High School who participated in athletic programs took place Tuesday evening in the cafeteria.

Special honors were accorded five youthful athletes named as the school's "most valuable player" in each sport. They are Don Lloyd, football; Philip Lapinski, wrestling; Paul Seebold, basketball; Nick Harper, track; and Frank Stroehmer, baseball.

Fathers of the athletes were guests at the dinner, sponsored by the Prather Lettermen's Club. Other special guests were School Supt. B. J. Davis, Administrative Assistant Frank Krause, Joe Fedora, director of athletics, and Wayne Williams and Don Miller, members of the Granite City High School coaching staff.

Prather Principal Gilbert Walsley welcomed the group and remarks were made by Miller and Williams.

Letter awards were presented to members of the track and baseball teams. Letters for other sports were awarded earlier this year at a school assembly.

Summers Named Most Valuable Athlete, Essington, Tyus Cited At Cougar Banquet

With only a few contests remaining, Southern Illinois University-Southwestern brought its 1970-71 intercollegiate athletic program to a close Monday night with the Cougars' third annual athletic awards banquet. Bob Broeg, sports editor of the Post-Dispatch, was principal speaker.

"Most Valuable Athlete" was John "Champ" Summers, outstanding basketball and baseball player. The former Madison High graduate started for Coach Jim Dudley's basketball team at forward although he stands only 6'2". The Cougar basketball record was 15-11.

Summers led in rebounds and finished in a deadweight with Venice's Rich Essington for individual scoring honors. A senior, Summers played no college baseball until he reported last fall for Coach Roy Lee's early workouts.

The baseball team which finished with a 23-13 record, reached the finals of the Mid-east NCAA regional baseball tournament last week at Marietta, Ohio, after beating the eventual winners, Central Michigan, 3-1, in the meet and then bowing, 8-0, 8-6.

Summers played a key role in the baseball team's drive to a second straight NCAA tourney bid, leading the Cougars with 35 RBIs and eight homers. He played first base and right field.

Named scholar-athlete was Steve Schmidt, soccer player from St. Louis.

Essington Cited
Essington was named most valuable player on the basketball team. He was the leading scorer and an outcourt shooting ace. Essington will graduate this June.

In soccer the MVP Award went to Coach Bob Gueller's goalie, Rick Benben, who stepped in to fill the void created by an injury to Jim Stranz. His great defensive play was a key to the soccer team's 1-3 1970 season and helped the Cougars gain their second straight bid to the NCAA university division post-season tournament.

Centerfielder Terry Pilcher, a junior from Collinsville, was named MVP for the baseball team. He hit a sensational .450 in the NCAA tournament and .365 for the complete season. Pilcher and Summers were named to the tournament All-Star Team. Pilcher led all hitters.

The MVP honor on Coach Larry Kristoff's 8-4 wrestling team was won by Phil Janietas, who gained All-American honors at Omaha, Neb., for the Cougars in the college division meet. Janietas is from Chicago.

Tyus the Speedster
Speedster George Tyus from Madison was named MVP for Jack Whitted's track team. Tyus, a freshman, was undefeated in the 100-yard dash in the Cougar '72 season.

Rich Trigger, a junior college transfer from Indiana, was named most valuable runner on Coach John Flanner's 14-3 cross country squad.

Belleville's Tom Kammann won the MVP award for Coach Harry Gallatin's 22-1 golf team. A senior, Kammann will be lost to the 1972 squad.

The first annual Health Service Award went to George Combes, a distance runner from Edwardsville.

Another first award, "The Hard As Nails Award," was presented to soccer player Fassi.

Overall, the Cougars' seven varsity sports posted a 99-44 season for a winning average of .690. The golf team, also the second straight season, qualified for a NCAA post-tourney bid and will take part in June at Chico State in California.

Tyus will run in the college division NCAA track and field meet finals to be held early in June in California.

4 Strokes Stop GC Golfer
Despite failing to gain a berth in the U. S. Open golf championships, Terry Tessary, 1827 Spring Ave., says he will not give up trying to enter the large national tournaments.

Tessary missed qualifying for the U. S. Open sectional by four strokes as he carded 82-78 in district competition at the Illinois Country Club in Springfield this week. A score of 106 was required. Tessary qualified for the sectionals last year with rounds of 76-78 but a thunderstorm on the 11th links Saturday apparently hindered his effort.

At courses in this area, he is a par or sub-par golfer. When not on the links he teaches physical education at Central Grade School in Roxana.

A graduate of Granite City High School, he was a member of the Warrior squad in 1965 and in 1968 and 1969 he played SIU-SW'S "MOST VALUABLE ATHLETE FOR 1970-71" John "Champ" Summers, standout basketball and baseball player, was picked by Cougar coaches for the past intercollegiate season. Summers, who played his prep sports at Madison High School, received his trophy from Ramon Williamson, dean of students.

Mercer, St. Mary's in Busy Baseball Weekend

Can Mercer keep up its heavy bombardment of Inter-City Baseball League pitching when it visits the Troy Red Birds at 2:30 p.m. Sunday at the Moonlight diamond on Old Route 40 two miles west of Troy?

Winner by 2-3 over St. Mary's Holy Name Boosters of Madison in the opener and then by 20-3 over the East Alton Machinists, the Granite City nine shares the Blue Division lead at 2-0 with Collinsville Molitor. The Machinists are 1-1 and Maryville is 1-2.

St. Mary's, 0-2 in the Red Division, has a bye Sunday but will visit East Alton at 2:30 p.m. Monday to meet the Machinists while Mercer is hosting Fairfax at Wilson Park.

Troy leads the Red Division with a 2-0 record. Fairfax has Preter Park, East Alton. Re yet to play, Glen Carbon is 1-2 and Highland-Pierson is 0-2.

Other Sunday action sends Maryville to Highland, the Machinists to Glen Carbon and Collinsville to Fairfax at Van

The zoo that runs on peanuts.

In Boy Village, Ohio you don't have to go to the zoo to go to the zoo. The zoo has wheels. It's called a Volkswagen Station Wagon. And every week the little zoo and the big Box go traveling together. Bringing a whole menagerie to kids in schools, hospitals and parks. Because the Box is almost twice as big inside as a normal station wagon. It can show up with some pretty big surprises. Like a cow. Or a deer.

And 12 acres cages of ducks and cats and raccoons and 8-foot snakes and sheep and groundhogs and hawks and rabbits and guinea pigs and turtles and skunks. But what really amazes Mrs. Elberta Fleming, the zoo's founder and driver, is what she can get out of her huge Volkswagen. Thousands of miles of road shows for so little. "You could say it runs on peanuts," said Mrs. Elberta Fleming. Which is exactly what we said.

been a great increase in families. Also there has been a great increase in parish activities.

In the early 1960s, there was one big social event of the year, that being the church picnic, or fair. Each family would bring a basket of food and congregate around Horseshoe Lake, a sort of improvised park. There were various concessions, such as a wheel of fortune.

Card parties took place usually six times a year. The only other parish activity at the time was regular Sunday School classes. The chief duty of the priest, besides celebrating Sunday Mass, was to visit the various families in his parish. Fr. Myers was succeeded by Fr. Kipping, who remained from 1912 to 1918. On Oct. 1, 1919, Fr. Douglas was appointed pastor and was succeeded by Fr. Costello. On Sept. 1, 1921, the Rev. Timothy McKeogh became pastor and stayed until 1952. In 1950, the population of Granite City was 14,757. By 1930, the population had nearly doubled to a total of 25,130. The 1940 census showed a decrease of over 2,000 people to 22,910.

By 1950, there were 29,465 in Granite City and St. Elizabeth's parish population also grew accordingly. It was at about this time that Bishop O'Connor came to Mitchell for Confirmation.

He saw the rapidly growing parish in desperate need of more ample facilities. He went back to Springfield and was faced with a decision concerning St. Elizabeth's.

He narrowed it down to two possible alternatives — either start a new parish or relocate the old one. His decision—relocate St. Elizabeth's.

Bishop O'Connor sent the Rev. Lawrence Mattingly to the tiny church in Mitchell, his assignment being to relocate St. Elizabeth's parish. The year 1952 marked a new era for St. Elizabeth's, an era of expansion.

Fr. Mattingly brought with him a few new concepts on how to run a parish. When a corporation needs a shot in the arm to increase production, the president may call for a firm to more and show the individual employees how to do each job better, faster, cheaper and with a minimum amount of labor.

This was Fr. Mattingly's goal when he arrived: acquaint the people with their responsibility. He started by hiring a firm which offered a series of talks, showing the need and how the members could fill it. His theories proved successful.

In the spring of 1953, Fr. Mattingly acquired a suitable site for the relocation of St. Elizabeth's. In 1955, expansion started to take shape.

Plans were drawn and construction started on a modern brick school. The site: The corner of Johnson and Pontoon Roads in Granite City. The cost: $150,000.

The school contained six rooms, only three of which were in operation. The school housed grades 1-4 and was staffed by the Sisters of Divine Providence.

In March, 1956, the second big step in the expansion was started—a cafeteria and temporary church, later to be used as a gymnasium. Its dimensions are 180x70 feet.

The next addition to the parish came in 1961 when eight more rooms were added to the

Autos Turn, Collide

While making left turns, an auto driven by Cheryl Tackett, 133 Kinder Lane, and a taxi driven by Truman R. Pruitt, 2059 Cleveland Blvd., collided at 11:15 a.m. Wednesday at 27th Street and Madison Avenue. Miss Tackett was charged with violation of an instruction permit.

Cash, Tire Taken

The management of the Truckers Stopover, 1008 State St., Madison, told police at 5 p.m. yesterday that $12 was taken from the place and a spare truck tire was taken from a truck owned by Reitzel Trucking Co., Perrysburg, Ohio, parked at 1010 State St.

In 1962, a convent was started.

St. Elizabeth's today is a million-dollar complex at the corner of Johnson and Pontoon Roads — and the 450 families who comprise it.

Now, the goal is not to put up more buildings but to get people to think about themselves and their church. To get people to take an active part in their religion, at the parish level and in their daily lives to live their faith.

killed and the other critically injured.

Agreed to Install Lights
Following several meetings between school district, city and Nameeki township officials, Nameeki board members agreed to finance construction of lights at Maryville School, and included Kreitner school, located in State Park Place east of Route 40.

Cost of the lights was estimated at $12,000 each. At the same time, Nameeki township agreed to pay $5 per day of the cost of maintaining crossing guards at the two schools.

Referring to the township plan to install the lights, Whitwell told town board members Monday night that "it was a time of emergency and we did the best we could."

He added that "I since have been informed that it is the responsibility of the school districts to install the lights or provide the guards and we cannot legally participate."

A move to install crossing guards at Maryville school followed an accident Jan. 19 in which two girls were struck by an auto. One of the girls was

Collinsville Woman Hurt in Accident

Miss Lynne A. Masters, 19, of Collinsville, was injured when her auto struck the right side of a car driven by Irene L. Louis, 39 Oaklawn Drive, who was making a left turn at 8:40 a.m. Wednesday at Nameoki Road and Madison Avenue. Miss Masters was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital with abrasions and contusions to the face, forehead and right elbow. Miss Louis was charged with a right-of-way violation.

2 Charged With Dumping Trash on Venice Road

Two East St. Louis men were arrested at 4:10 p.m. yesterday after allegedly dumping a pickup truck load of trash on Merchants Road, just west of Garner Road, in Venice.

Robert George Deal, 24, driver of the truck, and T. B. Young, 19, were charged with street littering. Deal also was charged with having no driver's license. He was being held in Venice this morning while Young was freed under $25 bond.

Public to Hear Pupil Redistricting Plans

Three aspects of redistricting pupils in the Granite City School District, including grade and high school students, will be explained to parents and other individuals at a public meeting set for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at Maryville School, Dale C. Rea, assistant to the Granite City superintendent of schools, said today.

Tuesday's briefing is not restricted to residents whose School Rea stressed, but is open to all interested Granite Citizens.

An explanation of the redistricting proposals will be given by Rea; Mitchell Principal A. E. Menendez, chairman of the Redistricting Committee; Charles Weiss, Grigsby JHS principal; Mike Sikora, Central JHS principal; and Nameoki Principal Donald Kopp.

Smorgasbord for GOP Candidates

The June meeting of the Granite City Republican Women's Club has been changed from Tuesday, June 1 to June 8 to enable members to attend a benefit smorgasbord for Republican levee board candidates, John Mangiaracino and Lester Thiele.

Tickets for the smorgasbord, to be held at Bill Burns cafeteria, cost $5 and can be obtained from club members Mrs. Maxine Grissman, a club official said.

The local GOP organization was represented by eight members at the annual dinner of the Republican Women's Service League held at the Rose Bowl last week. Two new members, Mrs. Marlene Serini and Mrs. Lester Thiele, have been accepted in the club, it was announced.

Plans for a June 12 yard sale will be completed at the next meeting, Mrs. Grissman advised.

Chapter HT Hears Attorney

Leo Konzen, a local attorney, spoke on "Let's Look Ahead," the subject of wills and trusts, at a meeting Monday of Chapter HT, P.E.O. in the home of Mrs. B. S. Miller, 3230 Princeton Drive.

A dessert luncheon was served by Mrs. Miller to 13 members and a short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Paul Surbey, president.

Board Seeks Tuition Waivers for SIU-SW

The Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees has adopted a resolution asking the Illinois Board of Higher Education to approve tuition waivers in special SIU programs for disadvantaged and minority students at the local campus.

The resolution asks the BHE to grant 40 tuition waivers for students in the Experiment in Higher Education, 25 for the Performing Arts and Training Center and 100 for the supplemental instructional program.

All three of these programs are associated with SIU-SW's East St. Louis Center. This year there are 40 disadvantaged students in these programs on tuition waivers.

The resolution further asks that SIU-SW be given authority to waive tuition for students taking part in research and training grants that require the institution to waive tuition as a condition of the grant contract.

The resolution seeks exceptions to the proposed 2% of enrollment limits that are called for in the Board of Higher Education's Master Plan Phase III. The suggested 2% ceiling on waivers would affect all state universities.

SIU-SW, according to the resolution, feels the request for waivers is in keeping with the urban thrust of the local campus and is consistent with SIU-SW's commitment to public service and the needs of the community it serves.

Sanitation Contract Automatically Renewed

Granite City's garbage collection contract with Milam Corp. has attracted so little interest among city officials this year that the contract has been renewed automatically for a three-year period, it was revealed in Monday night's council meeting.

The sanitation contract has gone unmentioned in recent months, but was brought to the council's attention Monday night when it was noted that under terms of the old contract, expiring at the beginning of the city's new fiscal year on May 1, the contract automatically was renewed.

Mayor Donald Portney pointed out that the previous contract provided that unless the city was notified by the collection firm, or the collection firm was notified by the city, of an intent to reopen the contract with 60 days of its expiration date, the contract automatically was renewed for three years.

A council member asked City Attorney Leon Scroggins what he thought of the provision.

"I think that under terms of the old contract you now have a new contract for three years," Scroggins responded.

There was no further comment except a suggestion by Alderman R. E. Robertson that City Clerk Robert Stevens be instructed to negotiate the required performance and liability bonds by the Milam Corp.

In the County of Madison and State of Illinois, an Election will be held for the purpose of electing.

Trustees of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District to fill two vacancies

The polls of said Election will be opened at Six o'clock in the morning, and will close at Six o'clock in the evening of that day.

Dated at Edwardsville, Illinois, this 27th day of May, 1971.

Evelyn H. Harty
COUNTY CLERK

Blackburn, a former Madison pastor. The birthday of each youth at the ranch is remembered by the local women with a card and cash gift, Mrs. Tucker said.

A special project during the past 12 months involved assistance to a small child who was seriously hurt when her foot was severely lacerated in a power lawnmower accident.

During the same period, the Amvets Auxiliary completed a total of 45 projects relating to community service work, Mrs. Tucker reported.

Aid Local Families
Thirteen volunteers worked a total of 380 hours and traveled 597 miles to provide assistance through various projects which included aiding destitute families—families whose homes were lost due to fires—and to furnish transportation to hospitals for individuals requiring outpatient treatment or for family members wishing to visit a hospitalized relative.

Other service work performed in the local community by the Amvets auxiliary involved donating blood for a small child; collecting funds for the Cystic Fibrosis, Heart and Multiple Sclerosis campaigns; and securing wheelchairs, medical equipment and appliances for handicapped children and elderly patients.

Members also donated their services to the Protestant Welfare and Coordinated Youth Services agencies and, in return, received aid from the two United Fund-supported groups when needed, Mrs. Tucker explained.

Residents without transportation were aided to report to a physician's office or to obtain groceries, the chairman noted, and that the group also helped at a mental health Christmas program.

Gifts to Servicemen
An amount exceeding $1,346 was expended the past year for clothing, furniture, household appliances, supplies, food and cash donations for needy families and to other charitable enterprises, Mrs. Tucker reported.

A number of gift boxes were sent to servicemen in Vietnam at Christmas time and other periods during the year, the auxiliary officer said.

To finance their projects, the local Amvets auxiliary members sponsor various benefit events, such as fish fries, "cake walks" and similar activities.

Other funds are obtained through collections contributed by each member at regular club meetings and donations from the men's division of the veteran's organization.

Chapel Choir to Present Concert

The Chapel Tour Choir, a mixed choral group from St. Luke's United Methodist Church, Memphis, Tenn., will present a sacred concert at Nameoki United Methodist Church, Pontoon Road and Primrose, Sunday at 10:45 a.m.

The concert will be made up of choral selections of compositions such as Butcher, Buntin, Smith, Simon, Guthrie, Ades, Winter-Roff, York, Roberts, Young and Wilhousky.

The group of high school young people will sing praise anthems, hymns, spirituals, patriotic songs, folk-rock and nutting from the folk musical, "The Lord's Thing" by Lani Smith.

Various numbers during the concert will feature clarinet, bass clarinet, saxophone, flute, trumpet, french horn, trombone, baritone, handbell and guitar accompaniment. Also featured will be the Chapel Handbell Choir, a group of ten youth, ranging a 3-octave set of Dutch handbells.

The 8-day concert tour will take the choir approximately 1,500 miles through Effingham, Granite City, Belleville, Downers Grove, Illinois; St. Louis, Mo.; Kokomo, Ind.; Cincinnati, Ohio; and Memphis, Tenn.

Merlin E. Johnson, director of the choir, and director of music ministry at the church, is a native of Centralia, Ill., and attended Asbury College, Wilmore, Ky., where he received his B.A. degree in piano and church music in 1958.

'Young Life' To Honor GCHS Grads on Friday

"Reflections," the annual tribute to GCHS graduating seniors given by Young Life, will feature a banquet with entertainment at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the First Assembly of God Church, 24th Street and Grand Avenue. Ronald E. Pennell will be master of ceremonies.

Pennell teaches English, debate and acting at Granite City High School. He is a member of the Masquers' board of directors, and recently directed "The Crucible" for the club.

He will soon appear as Beauden Burnside in the Masquers' production of "Mame." He received his M.A. degree in theatre from St. Louis University.

"Reflections" will include six skits portraying the highlights of the past year. Trophies are to be presented to an outstanding teacher and worthy student of the senior class. Teachers attending from the local high school will be Philip Mehelec, Terry Salem, Henry Beiser and Mrs. Cindy Hornell.

At last year's production, Pennell was also the M.C. He has often participated in Young Life programs over the past two years. Pennell feels that "Young Life" is one of the most active and effective young people's groups.

"Their goals are high," he said. "They have a strong influence for good. Not only are these young people concerned about their personal development and community development, but also they are doing something about it. They have the concern and courage to act."

Tickets are available from club members for $2. No tickets will be sold at the door.

RONALD E. PENNELL

To Receive Degree

Berte Jane Baker, 2517 Delmar Ave., will receive the degree of bachelor of science during commencement exercises for 125 candidates at Lindenwood College at 10:30 a.m. Saturday on the campus in St. Charles, Mo.

Murphy Twins Score Again as Scholars

The Murphy Twins from Granite City who scored near-perfect academic records as undergraduates at Southern Illinois University's Carbondale Campus have done it again.

Each attending a prestigious graduation decided to give three awards that year instead of two (the No. 1 place in the male student only 0.004 point ahead of Thomas).

Both Murphys majored in printing management at SIU. Thomas went on to graduate studies in international affairs and Edwin in public administration.

That year's SIU graduating class, Thomas' score was 4.969 and Edwin's 4.964 (5.0 equals straight A). These ratings are based on a four-year record.

Because the twins were so close in their records, the Foundation decided to give three awards that year instead of two (the No. 1 place in the male student only 0.004 point ahead of Thomas).

GC Scholarship Foundation Awards Given

Twenty-two seniors received Granite City Scholarship Foundation awards at the annual Recognition Day program Wednesday morning at Granite City High School.

Recipients of 400 scholarships and their sponsors are: Colleen Jeffries, A. O. Smith Corp.; Clifford Parrish, American Steel Foundries; Cathy Johnson, American Association of University Women; Debbie Fecurka, Business & Professional Women's Club.

Kim Gauen, Granite City Optimist Club; Brad Roberts, Granite City Rotary Club; Rebecca Thies, Rozann Alvarado and Stephen Underkofler, Granite City Steel Co.; Marilyn Scrum, Gregory Thebaud, Joyce Richardson and Pamela Cason, GC 30-Minute Club; Gail Purkey and William Cedor, Miles Laboratories; and Christopher Schreiber, Prairie Farms.

Receiving partial scholarships were Sheryl Blockberger, Fred Dodge (Dow); Robert Swann, Kiwanis Club; Bonnie Byrnes, Minerva Club; David Brewer, Press-Record; Leanne Weaver, Twilight Optimist Club; and Peggy C. Flach.

Space Sought in Park For Youth Gatherings

A delegation of three persons including Ralph Astorian, Mike Baker and Vernon Gray asked the Granite City Park Board at its meeting Wednesday night to consider setting aside a place in the park for young people to gather, talk, play their guitars and sing.

"The park provides tennis courts, swimming, softball and baseball courts, but there is an area of need that is not being met," Astorian said. "The kids are looking for a place to gather peacefully and they have nowhere to go on Saturday except the YMCA. We have a new generation and we must wake up to this fact."

"We are not here to make demands in any way—just to give food for thought to the park board in order that it may more fully meet the needs of all the park district residents," Astorian said.

The group also questioned the park curfew of 10 p.m. while the city and state curfews are 11 p.m. during the week.

Patricia Loman, vice-president of the board, thanked the group for its comments and suggested that program be prepared by the youth and given to Harold Brown, park superintendent for consideration by the board.

Henry Gabr, president of the board, expressed appreciation to the group that park property was respected and the park program to include the entire community as far as space and budget permits.

An auto driven by Patricia Carlson, 1706 Fifth St., collided with one driven by Robert L. Pickel Jr., 1436 Seventh St. as Pickel's backed out of a driveway at Sixth Street and Madison Avenue Monday. Police reported the left front of the Carlson car was damaged and Pickel's auto was undamaged.

Scholarship Awarded To David Elledge

David Elledge, son of Dr. and Mrs. Melvin Elledge Jr. of Joplin, Mo., former Granite City resident, has been selected to receive the President's Scholarship award at Missouri Southern College.

The President's Scholarships are awarded by the MSC Board of Regents and Board of Trustees and are administered by the principal of the recipient's high school.

Elledge, a senior at Parkway High School of Joplin, is second ranking in a class of 343 students. He had a perfect grade average during his four years of high school work.

He will be one of the speakers at commencement exercises. His topic will be "What the Individual Can Do." He plans a career in dentistry.

His grandmother, Mrs. Ed Harrison, resides in Collinsville.

Higher Parking Fees Defeated by Students

Students at Southern Illinois University—Southwestern have defeated a proposal to increase parking fees to finance construction of an observation tower to help combat automobile thefts.

Students have also voted to discontinue payment of a $2,400 annual salary to the president of Student Senate and against granting a tuition waiver and room expenses for the president.

Ronald Williamson, dean of students, said he would study the election results before making any recommendation about the remuneration of the student president.

In addition to the Alpha Sigma Nu office, the Granite City youth also was elected to Beta Gamma Sigma fraternity, the Commerce School's equivalent of the national scholastic honor society, Phi Beta Kappa.

Forger Banks Money On Another's Account

The First Granite City National Bank reported at 1 p.m. Monday that a woman forged several checks, made sizeable deposits on the account of a Granite City resident and escaped with a total profit of $1,000 when a teller became suspicious.

The bank reported that on Friday afternoon the woman, described as being black and from 21 to 22 years old, presented a check drawn on Delphi Inc. of Chicago for $1,490. She deposited $750 on the account and took the rest in cash.

The same woman approached the same teller Monday morning with a check for $950 on the same firm, depositing $650 on the account and taking $300. At 12:15 p.m. Monday, the woman appeared at a walk-up window with a check for $750, asking that $500 be deposited and $250 returned. When the teller started to investigate, the woman ran.

The holder of the account told authorities that she had sent a small check to Chicago and that it was lost in transit. As the forger had used her account number, she asked that it be changed.

Firm Donates Air Bank Systems to Rescue Team

Two cascade systems, a means by which scuba diving tanks are replenished with air without directly having to utilize a compressor unit, were donated this week by Air Products and Chemical Inc. of Granite City to the Civil Defense Underwater Recovery Team.

Rex Waggoner, alumnus of the Bubblemaster Scuba Diving Club and coordinator of the Granite City CD underwater rescue squad, said the systems include a portable and a stationary unit.

Both types of correlated tank systems would prove invaluable during an emergency should a compressor unit become unavailable or fail to operate, the alumnus said.

The cascade system, a series of interconnected tanks, is filled with air from the compressor with the contents then stored against future use, Waggoner explained.

The Air Products firm donated all labor required to construct the systems, together with the fittings, hoses, gauges and other necessary equipment, the team official said. Harold Humphreys, a superintendent at the local firm, greatly assisted in coordinating the project, Waggoner noted.

Two Plead Innocent

Innocent pleas were entered Monday afternoon by Doris Marlow, 41, of 2901 Roosevelt Ave., on a charge of public indecency, and Kenneth Childers, 44, same address, on a disorderly conduct charge. They were taken to the Madison County Jail in lieu of $1,000 bonds. They were arrested early Thursday at their home.

Pastor Allen Groff Author of New Book

Allen Groff, pastor of the First Assembly of God Church, 24th Street and Grand Avenue, is the author of a new book, "Monkey Off My Back," to be released by Zondervan Publishing Co. this week.

The work is a biography of drug addict Jack Brown, who now addresses more than half a million high school and college young people a year on the drug problem. The book, printed in both hard cover and paperback, is the first lengthy work by the local pastor who has several articles published on counseling and family life relations.

Mr. Groff, who has been elected to the post of assistant superintendent of the Illinois District of the Assembly of God, also is a member of the Board of Regents of North Central Bible College in Minneapolis, Minn. He has been actively engaged in campus speaking engagements around the nation this Spring and is in wide demand as clinician for Couples Conferences and retreats.

Groff also directs the Intern Program for young seminarians for his denomination in the state of Illinois in addition to constantly updating the Youth Program of the local church. The pastor states he is not "hung up" trying to denationalize young people—he only wants them to know the fullness of life which can result from a personal encounter with Jesus Christ.

"Monkey Off My Back" has received good notices from early reviewers and the subject of the book, Mr. Brown, is to appear on network TV talk shows in a few months, giving insight into the drug scene. The book will be available in most area bookstores.

Geo. 'Goobert' Lindsey Visits Two Schools

Television star George Lindsey, known as "Goobert" on the "Mayberry RFD" television series, made two surprise visits to local elementary schools Tuesday afternoon while here to formally open the new George Lindsey's Family Steak House in Nameoki-American Village Shopping Center.

Lindsey and his associates were escorted by the Granite City Police to Maryville school where he gave a brief talk on the background of the TV program and answered questions by students. About 700 children gathered in the school gymnasium to visit the celebrity who signed an autograph which will be reproduced for each of the students.

The second stop was made at Parkway School where the annual school picnic was in progress. Lindsey presented the children with autographed pictures.

Meanwhile, operators of the new restaurant reported Tuesday evening they had served the 7,000th dinner since the restaurant opening.

Nuclear Plant Photos Found in Canal Here

A suitcase found in the Hartford Canal containing what may be photographs and blueprints of the Point Beach Nuclear Plant near Two Rivers, Wis., has touched off an investigation this week by agents of the FBI and U. S. Atomic Energy Commission.

Two boys playing near the Lewis & Clark Park found the suitcase Saturday and turned it over to Hartford police who gave it to the Madison County sheriff's office.

It contained about 200 photos and blueprints, the sheriff's office said, and deputies believed they involved construction of the plant which began operating a year ago near Lake Michigan. The photos were said to be in good condition.

The sheriff's office turned the case over to the FBI which declined to comment on the investigation.

NOW HEAR THIS!

Prior to the fire, we had contracted with Aina Temple of East St. Louis for a big block of Circus Tickets to be given out in our store. We are going to start giving these tickets out this Friday and Saturday on the Garden Shop parking lot. The Tri-City Show Club will be holding their Fish Fry these two days from 12:00 noon 'til 9:00 p.m. Come on down and patronize this fish fry and pick up one of these special circus tickets FREE of charge. One of the Schermers, Leo, Avery, Herman, David or Betty will be passing out the tickets at the fish stand. So, don't be bashful.

We wish to thank all of the people, friends, customers and suppliers who expressed their concern for us during this trying time. We all appreciate the many thoughtful expressions.

We'll be giving you a progress report in the Press-Record — so watch for our message.

Leo & Avery

WILL BE BACK!

After 68 years, we have a tradition to carry on! Work has started! All the merchandise has been removed from the building and sold for salvage. G. H. Sternberg & Co. is riding herd on the building and we know he'll make a big effort to get us back as soon as possible.

Meanwhile, we are starting to order fixtures to replace those damaged in the fire. So things are rolling — but everything takes time. Our target date for re-opening is late July. Maybe with good luck, it will be sooner.

We know that the fire has been a big inconvenience to our thousands of loyal customers. All we can say to them is BEAR WITH US. A new Schermer's will arise out of the ashes — stocked with brand new merchandise!

20 NAMEOKI VILLAGE

GRANITE CITY, ILLINOIS

16 from Miles Hear Richards, Dr. Compton

Sixteen supervisory personnel from Miles Laboratories' Marshall Division Plant in Granite City, Illinois, attended a half-day Supervisory Management Seminar during the week-end in the Center for Continuing Education on the campus of the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, Ind.

They were Carl Allison, manager, customer services; Bill Aufderheide, supervisor, accounting; Boy Frey, supervisor, technical services; Jim Goughen, senior cost accountant.

Sam Gultak, general foreman, production; Ray Kiely, purchasing supervisor; Claude Knapp, process engineer; Bill Killough, project engineer. Don Partney, maintenance engineer; Roger Reese, general foreman, production; Maston "Smitty" Smith, general foreman, maintenance; Larry Schuepbach, production foreman.

Art Theis, general foreman, maintenance; Fran Wehrle, security supervisor; Bill Wellinghoff, labor relations representative; and Wyatt Watkins, shift chemist.

They were part of a group of 50 selected supervisory employees invited to attend from seven of Miles' U. S. plants. Also attending the seminar, conducted by famed ex-athlete Bob Richards, were several of the Miles management located at the company headquarters in Elkhart.

Walter Ames Compton, M.D., president and chief executive officer of Miles, spoke on "Miles—Past, Present and Future."

"He told the group that the company will 'continue to invest in those products and in those markets where our competence and strength can be used fully to realize the potential growth which exists.'"

Long-Term Growth
Dr. Compton added, "By serving the needs of people with products for better health and nutrition, Miles should be judged as a long-term growth company, as indeed our history has proven."

Richards competed in three Olympics, bringing home two gold medals and one bronze. At Helsinki in 1952, he set an Olympic record and is the only pole vaulter in Olympic history to win the gold medal twice. Through his athletic accomplishments, he has learned to courage others to greater achievement. His motivational presentation was entitled "The Power of the Mind."

While the seminar was designed for management in the Midwest, the program, Training '71, is an on-going corporate program for supervisory management personnel, both domestic and international, under the direction of Robert C. Rike, corporate training supervisor. Attending were Miles supervisors from Elkhart, Worthington, O.; Kankakee, Ill.; Granite City, Zeeland, Mich.; Westmont, Ill.; and Bedford Park, Ill.

Burglary at Car Wash
An $800 cash register and assorted mechanics tools were stolen in a burglary of the Jiffy Car Wash, 1506 Madison Ave., at 3:30 a.m. Tuesday. A vehicle apparently was driven into the rear overhead door, knocking it partially off the track.

Mail Truck in Mishap
While backing from an alley, a mail truck driven by Darrell E. Davis, 2216 Terminal Ave., struck the left front of the parked auto of Herschel Conley, 1748 Olive St., at 2:20 p.m. Monday on 26th Street between Grand Avenue and State Street.

Memorial Program Set At Lakeview Gardens

A Memorial Day program to honor deceased veterans will be conducted by Amvet Post 207 of St. Clair county in cooperation with other veterans' organizations at 7 p.m. Monday, May 31, at Lakeview Memorial Gardens in Fairview Heights.

Russell J. Maxwell will serve as master of ceremonies and Elmer Bretsch is program chairman. Floyd Kriegel is commander of the Amvet Post.

Special music will be furnished by the Black Knight Drum and Bugle Corps and the talented chorale of Belleville Township High School West, under the direction of Donald Jones.

"What Sounds The Trumpet?" will be the subject of an address to be delivered by retired Chaplain (Colonel) Rev. James A. Connett of the U. S. Army.

A podium will be built over the lake with colors of various posts and auxiliaries posted alongside the lake with the audience seated on the lawn.

At the conclusion of the service Gold Star Mothers will cast a wreath of white carnations upon the water accompanied by a salute by the firing squad of Catholic war veterans from Blitz-Job Post 370. The Black Knights will play taps and a color guard of American Legion Post 58 will retire the special flag used for this particular service.

Rev. Dennis Voss, associate pastor of St. Albert The Great Roman Catholic Church, will pronounce the benediction.

Lightning Strikes Two GC Homes during Storm

Lightning struck two homes, causing some damage, during Monday afternoon's thunderstorms.

A bolt shorted the electricity at the home of Wendell McIlvory, 62 Riviera Drive, at 2:35 p.m., causing a fire. The amount of damage remained to be estimated. Firemen were at the scene three hours and 55 minutes.

The six-room brick home of George Smolar, 3214 Wabash Ave., was struck at 3:40 p.m. Monday at the scene 15 minutes, estimated damage at $150 to the building and $150 to the contents.

Injured in Mishap

Mrs. Betty L. Green, 44, of 59 Holiday Park, was injured when her auto, stopped on Route 111 to turn left on Route 35, was struck from behind by a car driven by Edward Seabough, Chokita, at 5:25 p.m. Monday. She was taken with neck pains to St. Elizabeth Hospital and was released following treatment and x-rays.

Madison County authorities decided against filing a charge at this time but presented the case to the county state's attorney's office for study. A member of the sheriff's staff said it may be presented to the County Grand Jury. An inquest is pending.

Born in Centrair, Mr. Tucker was a life-long resident of Granite City. He was employed for two years as a welder and machinist by the Wilbur Waggoner Trucking Co. and was a member of Metro-East Auto Lodge 313.

Base of Pyramid Is Key to Success of Music Fest Drive

The Egyptians didn't corner the pyramid market. Hundreds of men, women and young people in Illinois and Missouri are building pyramids to support the Mississippi Valley Festival, which opens at Southern Illinois University's Southwest campus July 10 and features the St. Louis Symphony and a series of guest artists.

Pyramid—Play your role, aid music, insure dollars — that's what it's all about.

Everyone is getting into the act, according to Mrs. Thomas A. Switzer, pyramid coordinator.

Here is how it works. Each key hostess—four in Illinois, four in Missouri—invited seven women to a kickoff party on the Lt. Robert E. Lee riverboat. Each contributed $1.

The seven each had a party for six, the six for five, etc., until only one is left to invite. If the chain remains unbroken, 109,600 persons will have contributed $109,600. Some pyramids are serving on more than one level.

Pyramiding isn't confined to the St. Louis and Madison-St. Clair Counties areas. In Illinois, pyramid parties are being held as far north as Springfield and as far south as Carbondale.

They range in format from pink dogwood tea.

There have been luncheons, cocktail parties, dinners and desserts. One hostess invited her husband and his friends in for a game of billiards, another for a rubber of bridge.

Some of the hostesses are doubling up on parties. Two seven-level hostesses in Carbondale invited 12 for breakfast.

In addition to the big pink dogwood tea in St. Louis County, there was an indoor-outdoor tea in Carbondale which drew a large crowd.

One of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra fans opened her historic home in Grantfork for a coffee. Several dozen women attended.

Another took her guests to the country club for a luncheon and style show.

A Kirkwood, Mo., Festival fan sponsored a book review at one of the churches and invited the public.

With the baby sitting problem in mind, a Creve Coeur, Mo., resident had a carnival for mothers and their children and served peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, soft drinks and who want to help their wives are getting together over coffee, lunch or cocktails to help raise money for the Festival.

High school rock and country western fans have been enlisted by their mothers and several dollars were raised in a drive at Edwardsville High School.

SIU-SW students staged a party at the Granary and the dollar cover charge brought more than $325—enough to "buy out" a six level.

There are those who are "buying out," but SIU-SW students are donating this money in addition to that which they are raising via the pyramid.

One student is a seven-level hostess, responsible for raising $1,937.

To "buy out" means the host or hostess elected to pay the cost of his leg rather than ask others to be responsible for keeping the chain unbroken.

At the six level, for example, the hostess can invite five or donate $25.

At the five level, she can invite four or contribute $55; at the four level, invite three or contribute $16; at the three level, invite two or contribute $5; at the two level invite one or donate $2.

As a pyramid pointed out, it is the lower levels which bring in the money, so keeping the chain unbroken is vital to the pyramid's success.

The total from the three-and two-level hostesses could amount to $80,640.

Barbershop Singers Auditioning

The local chapter of Barbershop singers is in its second week of auditioning men that want to sing and become a member of the Society of the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America.

Auditions were conducted Monday night and will be held again next Monday night starting at 8 o'clock for any male, 18 years and older, at the Collinsville Building and Loan, 321 Belt Line, Collinsville.

The Mississippi Valley Chor., Collinsville Chapter, was chartered in 1969. The membership currently includes men from Collinsville, Edwardsville, Granite City, Maryville, Troy, Belleville and Alton. Wayne Bradshaw of Collinsville serves as president and George Holscher as musical director.

The chapter has two active quartets, the Arch Rivals and the Reasons Four. Rehearsals and meetings are held every Monday at 8 p.m. at the Collinsville Building and Loan.

S.P.E.S.Q.S.A. is an international organization and currently has over 32,000 members in every state of the United States and most Canadian Provinces. There are 700 chapters ranging in size from 25 to 150 men. It is the largest organized all-male singing fraternity in the world today and has over 1,000 quartets registered with the International headquarters.

Barbershop Harmony is harmony produced by four voices unaccompanied. There is at least one harmonizing chord on each note of the melody. The melody is usually sung by the "lead".

The "tenor" part, comparable to high alto, is customarily sung above the lead. The "bass" sings lower than the "lead" and the "baritone" provides those inbetween notes that produces the distinctive sound of Barbershop Harmony.

Success builds the name—and the name brings more success.

Grade School Redistricting Plans for Pontoon-Mitchell

Proposed grade school redistricting plans—related to the opening of the elementary school on the Schaefer tract on Old Alton Road in the Norwood area north of West Pontoon Road in September 1972—are being explained to the families affected in a series of briefings.

Meetings took place this week at Mitchell, Nameoki and Logan schools. Another is set for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, June 1, at Maryville and others also will be conducted.

Proposed Schaefer boundaries were outlined in Monday's issue. Enrollment there is expected to total between 600 and 750 students.

Under current plans, the largest group would be moved from Mitchell School, with 215 youngsters going to Schaefer—77 from Sunny Dell Acres, 72 from Cedar Park and 68 from the Van McRural Route Two area.

Mitchell School's enrollment now is 740, with 525 remaining after the transfer.

The latter figure would be increased by 138 pupils if the second part of the redistricting proposal, a comprehensive re-vamping in the Pontoon Beach-Mitchell area, is placed in effect, Donald Kopp, Schaefer-Wein sites redistricting subcommittee chairman, has explained.

Nameoki School would lose 163 pupils from its 672 population, all coming from the Briarcliff-Melrose area, and Maryville School would be decreased by 66 students from Hills Terrace, leaving 578.

Fewer Temporary Rooms
Reapportionment of pupils from the Mitchell-Pontoon Beach area to the schools depleted by transfers to Schaefer would permit school populations to be more stabilized and would allow elimination of some temporary classrooms now in use and other crowded situations to be remedied, the redistricting group shows.

Under the second redistricting plan, the Mitchell School boundaries would be extended to include the area north of Pontoon Road between Long Lake and Route 111, including 112 pupils from Lakeview Estates and 26 from the Kaseberg Lane area.

The switch would create a total student population of 663 and permit four "make-shift" classrooms to be converted to other uses.

Nameoki Extended
Nameoki School would take in the east north of Pontoon Road, extending east of Breckenridge Lane and Division Street, absorbing Lake Drive (north) and Sara Avenue and adding 96 pupils to the 569 left by the Schaefer transfer.

The proposal would result in a net decrease of 67 pupils and enable kindergarten rooms in a church to be eliminated.

Frohardt School would have no change in its present boundaries in the redistricting plan, continuing to take children from the Gaslight Walk area, south of Pontoon Road, considered a growth area needed to stabilize the Frohardt enrollment.

Morrison Road Area
Maryville School, which would lose 66 Hills Terrace pupils to the Schaefer site, would lose an additional six in the extension of the Nameoki district to Pontoon Beach, but would continue to take care of the Morrison Road-Tank Town area.

Enrollment at Maryville under this plan would be 572, compared to the present 644 pupils.

The reduction would allow either elimination of portable classrooms or the reconversion of the kindergarten to original use.

Relief at Stallings
Adequate relief would be provided under the plan for enrollment problems at Stallings School, which would lose 112 pupils in the Lakeview Estates area but would receive 18 from the Jones Park area south of Pontoon and east of Long Lake who presently attend Lake School.

The net effect would be a reduction in enrollment at Stallings from 399 to 305, resulting in discontinuing use of at least two makeshift classrooms.

Parkview School would lose 55 pupils in the Breckenridge-Division area of Pontoon Beach, reducing its enrollment from 556 to 501 leaving Parkview in a position to handle continued growth in its immediate area.

Lake School would lose 79 pupils from Lake Drive (north), decreasing its enrollment to 401 students.

Projected elementary enrollments for 1971-72 indicate only slight changes from the present student figures, the redistricting committee has reported.

It appears there is no question that Schaefer School will permit adequate facilities in the immediate future for the elementary population through redistricting between existing schools in the eastern section of the district where enrollment problems have been greatest, school officials have noted.

JOB RECORD HONORED. Mrs. Catherine Hommert, 2732 Michigan Ave., receives a Department of the Army certificate commending her outstanding work. Mrs. Hommert is employed in management information systems, Army Aviation Systems Command (AVSCOM), St. Louis. John Sperla, deputy office chief, presented the award.

Burglars Break Door, Loot Club Boundary
Burglars entered the Club Boundary, 1944 State St., at 2:45 a.m. Tuesday by breaking a lower panel to the supply room door.

A juke box was pried open and an undetermined amount of change was taken from it and a cash register. Also missing were two wrist watches valued at $50 and a butane cigarette lighter valued at $10.

Prather JHS To Expand Special Shop Course
Approval for Donald Sutphin, industrial arts teacher at Prather Junior High School to take part in a summer instruction program in manufacturing at Illinois State University has been given by the Granite City Board of Education.

Sutphin will receive instruction in both the manufacturing and construction phases of an 8-week Industrial Arts Curriculum Project program (IACP) and will set up the manufacturing portion of the series later this summer prior to teaching the course at Prather in the fall term.

Superintendent of Schools B. J. Davis explained the construction phase of the IACP program, taught during the current school year by Thomas Holloway of the Prather faculty, is being expanded to include the manufacturing segment.

Holloway attended a 4-week course last summer to acquaint teachers with the construction phase—the only part available at that time, the superintendent said.

Davis referred to the IACP program as a "practical and fascinating program" and urged board members to visit Prather and see the students in action.

So far, the administrator said, the junior high school level students have received instruction in such aspects of the construction field as labor negotiations, bidding for jobs and designing houses.

Visit to This Area by Mrs. U. S. Savings Bonds, a Honey of a Blonde

Among the most pleasant tasks Paul J. Kemp, A. O. Smith Corporation manager, has been called upon to perform was presiding over a luncheon May 19 at Sunset Hills Country Club launching the annual payroll U. S. savings bond drive.

He is chairman of the Madison-South Clair Counties Take Stock in America Campaign, under which industrial payroll savings are encouraged.

As Kemp told the gathering of 80 persons, payroll savings "offer systematic thrift to help individuals accumulate capital for personal goals; develop reserves of purchasing power for local communities; and provide non-inflationary financing for the public debt, promoting stability and preserving the purchasing power of the dollar."

Brightening the occasion was the presence of Jeanie Smith, who is Mrs. U. S. Smith.

As seminar hostess for the university for a year, she recruited and supervised a volunteer hostess staff which served three meals a day to 2,500 guests from all over the world. She also has backstopped the series of three-day seminars as assistant hostess.

The Smiths are members of the First Methodist Church of Tulsa, where Ron teaches adult classes.

Jeanie designs and makes most of her own clothes, including the yellow crepe "Far East look" formal she wore at her coronation as Mrs. U. S. Savings Bonds. Her reign will continue until the crowning of her successor Aug. 22.

Recently, she won a dress-making contest.

She majored in tailoring in high school, but later restricted her skills to her own apparel. For some years she has made bow ties, long ties and handkerchiefs for her husband.

In clothes, white is another popular color with Mrs. Smith, and as a U. S. Treasury Department good will ambassador, she has shown a predilection for red and blue as well.

In the Tulsa area, she is considered a top photographer's and television fashion model. She has modeled for leading dress shops and toy manufacturers, and has taught charm and social graces.

The many charitable events for which she has served as model and commentator include an Oklahoma Indian scholarship fund benefit.

The Smith home, in a hilly wooded area north of the university campus, is a study in contrasts. The traditionally styled structure, with its brick exterior, houses contemporary furniture and decorations.

Jeanie and Ron designed and built a one-piece sofa separated by a marble-topped low lamp table. The sofa and a Smith-made hassock are in the parlor's family room. Throughout the house are a number of her abstract ceramic designs mounted on walnut plaques.

A "second home" for the Smiths is the University Village Retirement Center, where they often have Sunday dinners. "A lot of grandfathers and grandmothers" there were thrilled when it was named Mrs. U. S. Savings Bonds, she recalls.

"Our children are especially fortunate because they have as well back in Des Moines, Ia."

She believes that "the American wife and mother serves her family best by being a challenge, dynamic, resourceful, achieving, and in the case of our youngsters, training."

"By training, I mean teaching love and respect for others, teaching that imagination and hard work lead to success; teaching the importance of among 51 wives and mothers as the "Mrs. U. S. Savings Bonds."

The selection was based on the belief that such a home-maker plays significant part in the life of her family and nation; the children that she and other mothers are guiding will become the citizens and leaders of the future.

"How their mothers raise them will, in large part, determine what children will be as adults," a spokesman for the judging panel commented. "American mothers have a vital role in two societies—that of today and tomorrow."

Jeanie Smith's contributions to the world of today include service as president of the Oral Roberts University Women's Club and vice president of the Tulsa Rotary Annex.

She serves on the Tulsa Share-In-America Savings Bond Campaign committee and with the Tulsa Christian Women's Club and the Tulsa Club.

County rate for this summer's tax bills amounts to 35 cents.

The rates are significant but the rapid trend toward erosion of the property tax base through refinancing and court rulings leaves this question: Would the existing rate limits be good enough if applied against a sharply reduced tax base?

Survivors of War Will Honor the Dead and Rededicate Selves to Ideals of Democracy

War itself is barbaric in many of its aspects but it has served noble causes. High honor is due those who bravely risked their lives in defense of freedom, and special tribute to war dead will be accorded again this weekend as Memorial Day, 1971, is observed.

Thoughts will dwell particularly on those who have given "the last full measure of devotion" in the fighting which still rages in Vietnam and Indochina.

A year ago, Quad-Cityans honored 34 members of the armed forces who had lost their lives during the Vietnam war. Two names have been added to the list in the meantime; the 1971 roll of Quad-City residents killed by the current war totals 36.

General John A. Logan, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, designated the first Memorial Day, choosing May 30, 1868, as an occasion for decorating the graves of fallen soldiers.

He expressed the hope that it would be observed "from year to year while a survivor of the war remains to honor the memory of the departed." All have since passed away, but the annual observance has been broadened to honor those of all American wars. No succeeding generation has been totally free of warfare; there have been new names in the casualty toll and new survivors to recognize their valor and sacrifice.

Someday it may be possible to think of armed combat as something of the dim, distant past. But the anguish of war, the sorrow for its victims, will never be entirely forgotten, nor should it be.

Memorial Day this year is deeply meaningful to the families of the 36 and to all who kneel before the graves of the fallen. In the thoughts and memories of everyone with whom they came in contact during their tragically brief life spans.

Citizens will salute them for their defense of democracy and rededicate themselves to hold fast to the ideals which make this nation well worth fighting for.

State Police Are a Fine Outfit—But State Bureau of Investigation Should Be Retained

Those who would abolish the Illinois Bureau of Investigation contend that its functions can be handled by the state police. Such an attitude has been leading contenders for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

The FBI was created under a Republican administration, it is true. But, surely, adequate safeguards could be established to keep it from becoming a creature of either party.

Criminals and their victims cross the full spectrum of party allegiance. Why should law enforcement be manipulated by politicians to be a partisan issue?

Anyone with even a cursory knowledge of the history of the Quad-City and Madison County is familiar with the limitations placed on the role of Illinois state police, who for many years were known as state highway troopers. This is not said in a critical way; we have the utmost respect for Capt. Emil Toffant and his district's officers, who are regarded as highly skilled and proficient. Their basic function has been traffic control, plus supplementing area police departments in times of emergency.

Their industriousness and cooperation have been outstanding but they have never been thought of as a crime-busting investigative bureau. Utilized by governors on rare occasions to curb illegal gambling and other instances of flagrant law violations, they were ridiculed unfairly on some occasions as "constables" in a flunking of court challenges of their right to conduct raids.

Criminals in 1971 are more mobile and knowledgeable than ever before. Illinois clearly needs its Bureau of Investigation, as the Madison County Grand Jury asserted in its May report endorsing the helpful activities of the FBI.

50 Years Ago St. Joseph Cornerstone Ceremony

Laying of the cornerstone of the new St. Joseph's Catholic Church will be one of the most memorable events in the history of the parish. It is set for 3 p.m. Sunday, J. B. Harris will act as grand marshal of a parade which is to precede the ceremony. Music will be furnished by the local band and by the Hussars of Alton.

Sacred hymns and national airs will be included in a music program following the rite of blessing. The East St. Louis Choral Club, a male chorus of 50 voices, will participate and the sermon will be delivered by the Rev. George Hensey, noted as one of the nation's foremost preachers.

Delegations of Knights of Columbus will attend from East St. Louis, Alton, Edwardsville, Collinsville and Belleville, and from St. Joseph's parishes in the area.

A luncheon will be served at the cornerstone ceremony and the Rev. W. T. Sloan will be master-of-ceremonies.

As birthdays and graduations. "Ron and I believe our commitment to saving bonds and mother, she is 'treasurer' of the Smith family. She manages the income and the savings."

"Systematic savings are the foundation for the future of our family," J. says.

"The regular purchase of savings bonds is the cornerstone of our savings program. It gives us peace of mind that we'll be able to meet our responsibilities—expected and unexpected."

She reports that bonds as gifts are popular with her family in observing such occasions as birthdays and graduations.

Veteran in Group of Youths at GC Park Defends Their Conduct

To the Editor:

I am writing in reply to a copy of letters in The Forum concerning the recent disturbances among youth and the police.

One woman wrote about how lazy and dirty the "longhairs" are. I, too, was at the park. I am not a Vietnam combat zone veteran. I have long hair, too.

I want her to know that half of all the youths at the park all four nights are friends of mine whom I know work at jobs 40 hours a week.

Young people buy 50% of all soft drinks in this country, 80% of all single records, 45% of all cameras and 10% of all new cars. We also are taxpayers.

In reply to stepping over "undesirables" in each other's arms, that's a big park and it would take a lot of kids in order for someone to have to step on a couple.

A few of us in that park, our "undesirables," thought it was undesirable to dodge "bouncing Betty" land mines in Vietnam or to be killed by a Viet Cong or to be sent back to a country where one's hair length means being treated good or bad.

How many times have I witnessed happy picnicking families throwing paper on the ground, or athletic types after sending someone to a nearby park to get a drink of water, or kids on the ground on the west side of the park near the basketball and tennis courts.

The largest piece of litter I saw dropped was a cigarette butt, out of our group of about 150.

Just I remember, everyone, just because a guy doesn't dress like you or wear his hair like you, doesn't make him bad. Most of us have clean hair. How many of you can remember eating goldfish at college, or being "risque" enough to bathe in a bathtub 30 or 40 years ago.

One of your folks running you down for racism counts. People, we aren't all bad, and some of us were mistreated by the Father of Three. Peace and joy to the world. LONG-HAIRED VETERAN

Youths 'American as Apple Pie'

(American Psychological Association)

"The American as apple pie" has rarely been used to describe the average anti-war protester, but a psychologist team feels the student protesters' true nature "is hidden by his bold clothing and abundance of hair."

Dr. Kenneth J. and Mary Kay Gergen, psychologists at Swarthmore College, Philadelphia, Pa., found exactly that in a recent attitudinal survey of more than 5,000 anti-war demonstrators at 40 American colleges and universities.

From their survey they drew this composite portrait of the average protester: "It might well be said that numerous protesters, women as well as men, embody many of the highest goals of the society."

"The average protester comes from a prosperous home. His parents are making important contributions to the community. He attends a good school. He achieves high goals and his aspirations are high."

"He has strong moral concerns, reports a deep loyalty to the American heritage, and an intense commitment to the war, which he feels to be tearing his country apart."

"Over 80% indicated approval for the Bill of Rights, the Constitution, the American Revolution and President Kennedy. In fact, only 18% were in any way favorable to President Nixon."

The protesters are most likely to be going to four-year, rather selective non-sectarian institutions in the East or West.

The Gergens reported the research shows the Vietnam war has seriously impaired the institution of higher education in America. Only 18% were in any way favorable to President Nixon.

The war has influenced students to disengage themselves from the process of higher education, including a lessening of interest toward graduate studies.

"Communication among members of the college community has been broken down. And there is widespread fragmentation and hostility among various student and faculty campus factions."

The Vietnam war has influenced students, teachers and administrators to "lose faith in the system of higher education, with 49% of 1,200 faculty members polled feeling the war has caused them to believe the present system of higher education is inadequate to meet the needs of contemporary society."

Sixty-five percent of the faculty polled indicated "that the cost of war has created a scarcity of research funds" in their field.

The Gergens conclude: "These various results leave little doubt that the war has important consequences for the system of higher education."

And, accordingly, the greatest "threat" to the future of the students who "are likely to do very well in their school grades."

In support of this, the Gergens found 70% of the anti-war protesters polled were earning a B average or better.

The Gergens also noted that the typical war protester "knows more about Vietnam than what he reads in the papers." Two of every three polled "have had a close friend or relative stationed in Vietnam."

Politically, these polled indicate only 3% considered themselves to be "radicals." Fifty percent said they were "Independents," and a slightly higher percentage were Democrats. Only 9% described themselves as Republicans.

Findings were presented at the 78th annual convention of the American Psychological Association.

Regional Report--Environment, Airport, Colleges in News

Granite City PRESS-RECORD
Thurs., May 27, 1971 Page 33

The week's development news of Madison and St. Clair Counties, summarized by the Illinois Metro-East Industrial Development Corp.

State charges about air pollution and proposed actions to reduce air pollution were part of the news of this region.

A public hearing on a complaint by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency that Granite City Steel Co. had violated Illinois air pollution laws began in Granite City and will be resumed June 1. The state charged the steel company with violating air pollution control laws since 1967.

At the hearing, the state listed the coke ovens, the blast furnaces and the slanting operations as sources of pollution. A representative of the steel company described the company's air pollution program, which includes air pollution controls at the Blast Furnace Division and other new devices that will be installed in the future at a cost of several million dollars.

Another area firm, the Modern Foundry and Manufacturing Co. of Mascoutah, was charged with violating the Illinois Air Pollution Control Act and the Environmental Pollution Control Act by discharging carbon monoxide, sulfur dioxide and other contaminants into the air. The company has indicated that it is in the process of installing control equipment.

A third firm, the Nestle Co., has announced that it will install control equipment, at a cost of $5,000, which will eliminate dust-particle emissions. A fourth firm, Laclede Steel Co., reported plans to expand its air pollution control equipment at a cost of several million dollars.

A new president and new trustees were appointed to colleges in the region this week.

Dr. Robert O. Birkhimer was named president of Lewis and Clark Community College. Currently a vice-president at Lewis and Clark, he succeeded Gail Myers, who resigned.

At McKendree College, three were appointed as new members of the board of trustees; they are Wyatt Rawlings of Lebanon, Charles Williams of Godfrey and C. J. Rogers of East St. Louis.

Spring term enrollments at SIU-SW was 12,114 students, an increase of 632 students over the same period last year.

Reverberations are still being heard from airport announcements by the states of Missouri and Illinois. The Dardenne site, currently favored by some Missouri officials, was described by an executive of a St. Louis engineering firm as a location that failed site evaluations tests twice in the past.

Fifteen years ago, the area was rejected as an airport by the U. S. Navy while, recently, it was not recommended by the City of St. Louis airport study.

In Illinois, a petition opposing the proposed Columbia-Waterloo location for the new metropolitan airport is being circulated in Monroe County; nearly 4,000 people have so far signed the document. The St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority has extended the contracts of its two consulting firms, R. Dixon Speas and Arthur D. Little, through August of this year.

Additional sewer and water lines will soon be under construction. In Alton, the City Council has awarded a $208,000 contract for the building of the Riverview-Shelly-Topping sewer project; the new line will serve people in the southwest section of Alton.

Construction on the Summerfield-Lebanon-Mascoutah water system should begin soon, following sale of nearly $2 million in bonds to the Economic Development Commission of the U. S. Department of Commerce.

The water system is designed to supply treated Kaskaskia River water to towns in southwestern St. Clair County.

It was another good week for the Mississippi River Festival. The Missouri State Council on the Arts announced that it will donate $2,610 to the Festival to help pay for the services of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra musicians. The Illinois Arts Council had earlier donated $50,000.

The Pyramid fund-raising campaign has raised $30,000; the Women's Society Association of the St. Louis Symphony Society plans to match this first $30,000 with an equal contribution.

In general area news, East

St. Louis Mayor Williams has reassigned 12 police department detectives to patrol duty as a step to prevent crime; the offices of the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission will be relocated within the city of Collinsville; a new bank, the Metropolitan Bank and Trust Co., has opened on the Beltline Highway in Alton.

The Cougar baseball team of SIU-SW played in the NCAA college division baseball regional; the Martha Manning apparel company has reported a 28% increase in first quarter sales; and the Maifest—involving among other things, knocking, strudel and cold beer and soda—was held Sunday in Columbus.

Portell Asks Children Be Kept Out of Spray

Parents have been asked by city officials to instruct their children to stay away from fogging machines used by the city street department. Lionel Portell, street superintendent, said youngsters are inclined to follow the machines to play in the fog, creating a hazardous condition which could result in a serious or tragic accident.

Portell warned that motorists passing the spraying equipment are unable to see the children who dart in and out of the foggy spray. In addition, he said, youngsters should not be breathing the spray fumes.

Perpetuate Monticello For Women's Education

Formation of The Monticello College Foundation and election of an executive director for the Foundation has been announced by the Monticello board of trustees. The Foundation will qualify for Internal Revenue purposes as a charitable, tax-exempt organization.

The original Charter of Monticello, which was granted in 1843 by Special Act of the Illinois legislature, provided that "the objects of said corporation shall be the promotion of female education."

A spokesman for the Monticello board said, "The Foundation's basic purpose is to carry on the already established mission of promoting the education of women in whatever ways become appropriate in the future."

Through these means, the trustees can perpetuate the belief of Captain Benjamin Godfrey, Monticello's founder in 1835, that "if you educate a man, you educate an individual; if you educate a woman, you educate a family." Present indications are that the assets of the Foundation will be approximately $3 million.

Named as executive director of the Foundation is Mrs. Dorothy Riley Harris, who has served as recording secretary to the board of trustees for a number of years.

Mrs. Harris became affiliated with Monticello in 1955 as secretary to Russell Sharpe, a former president. She served as administrative assistant to three successive presidents, Dr. Duncan Wimpers, Dr. John Haines and Dr. Gail Myers. In this association with the top administration of Monticello, Mrs. Harris has worked closely with the board of trustees.

In recommending Mrs. Harris for this position, Dr. Myers told the board, "Nowhere could we find anyone with the talents and experience better suited for this task of assisting trustees in moving forward to promote the education of women as a foundation. It is singularly appropriate that a woman be appointed in this job, and also that the board can avail itself of the depth of administrative experience at Monticello which

Mrs. Harris brings with her."

Programs of the Foundation will take some time to develop, trustees estimate, and the present board will continue to study its future role in education of women. The trustees anticipate promoting women's education through a wide variety of imaginative and unique projects and programs.

In announcing the Foundation, a spokesman for the board said, "We expect the Foundation to make a meaningful contribution to the education of women."

Starting July 1, 1971, the Foundation offices will be located at Godfrey on the campus of the new Lewis and Clark Community College. Alumnae and personnel records of Monticello also will be maintained at the offices of the Foundation. All inquiries relative to Monticello and the activities of the Foundation should be directed to the executive director at Godfrey.

DR. LEMUEL HALL
Former Pastor

Dinner to Mark
Pastor's Visit

Dr. Lemuel Hall, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Granite City from 1933 to 1941, will be honored at a covered dish dinner set for 6:30 p.m. Saturday, June 5, at the church. Dr. Hall and his wife, now residents of Asheville, N. C., will be house guests of Mrs. Marie Parks of Granite City while the couple are attending the Southern Baptist Convention, scheduled to take place next week in St. Louis. At the local dinner party, members of the congregation and church taken during Dr. Hall's pastorate here will be shown. The minister and his wife are hoping to renew their acquaintance with many friends in the community, a spokesman for the local church said.

Mission Prayer
Group Meets

Mrs. William A. Hudson, 2140 Grand Ave., was hostess to the Mission Prayer Group of the First Baptist Church Tuesday morning. Mrs. Patsy Eitelman opened the meeting with prayer. The reading of missionary names and birthdays was by Mrs. Pauline Harp, who also read the Scripture chapter. The devotional topic, "Why We Care," was presented by Mrs. Rose Mott.

During the business meeting, plans were completed for the group to attend the Southern Baptist convention Tuesday at Auditorium in St. Louis. Mrs. Harp announced that 11 get well cards and two sympathy cards were mailed during the month. A noon luncheon was served by the hostess to those named and to Mrs. Iva Olive, Mrs. Fern Affolter and Mrs. Hudson's two grandchildren.

Rapoffs Observe
25th Anniversary

Mrs. and Mrs. Andrew Rapoff, 2535 Edison Ave., were honored earlier this week at an open house and reception in the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. About 150 relatives and friends of the couple attended the affair which was hosted by the Rapoff children, Mrs. William Scott, Dan, Michael, David and Andy Rapoff Jr., and Miss Nancy Rapoff. A wedding cake centered the buffet serving table and silver and white appointments were used in the decorating theme. The guests at the Rapoff home were Charles A. Lybarger and Tony Rapoff, the fathers of the honored couple.

Highlighting the May meeting of Cub Pack 96 at Maryville School Monday evening was presentation of the "President's Award," a citation earned by the PTA-sponsored pack for its participation in the annual Scout-O-Rama event during the weekend at Wilson Park.

Cubmaster John Schrader, displaying the award to cub and parents, said the citation was conferred for Pack 96's booth which depicted the theme, "Second Time Around." The cub scouts made and distributed litter bags to the public at the booth, Schrader noted.

Another segment of the show centered around "Alan's Trained Dog Act," featuring Den Chief Allen Sims and Cub Scouts Bobby Smith, Pat Marmon, David Pinkston, Jeff Maccek and Ken Hellrung, all members of Den Four.

Cubmaster Schrader recognized Den Leaders, Mrs. Sharon Wise, Mrs. Shirley Smith, Mrs. Laver, Mrs. Pat Mullen and Assistant Den Leader Marian DeLozier and Den Dads, Roy Laver, Bob Canimore and Bill Mullen, with certificates of appreciation. Mrs. Smith also received a three-year service pin.

YOU DON'T CHANGE A CLASSIC, YOU PRESERVE IT. YOU DON'T IMPROVE A CLASSIC, YOU TREASURE IT.

Old Fitzgerald Bottled in Bond is handmade Kentucky Sour Mash Bourbon whiskey in its classic role and form—100 proof, 6 years old.

It has remained unchanged by time and unchallenged by competition. Pads and fashions merely emphasize its unembellished, uncompromised greatness.

Old Fitzgerald Bonded earns your immediate respect. Its flavor is fuller, nuttier, with more body and more presence than other Bourbons you have enjoyed.

This total flavor is possible only in 100 proof—this mellowness only after 6 years in the wood.

Old Fitz Bonded is made, aged and bottled in America's oldest family distillery by Bourbon-only people who honestly care about what they're selling, and who personally see that its quality is forever the same.

They stubbornly and proudly make Old Fitz Bonded for folks who can appreciate and afford the classic things of life. They consciously and deliberately make

Aerobatics, Navy Jet Team, Air Race, Weekend Reunion

The foremost cross-country air race of 1971 — covering 389 miles from Milwaukee, Wis., to the East-Alton-Bethalto area — will be held Saturday, with 30 top racing pilots competing for $7,000 prize money.

The planes, all capable of speeds exceeding 400 miles per hour, will take off from Mitchell Field, Milwaukee, at 11:15 a.m. They are expected to begin arriving at Civic Memorial Airport about noon Saturday.

Favorites in the race include Clay Lacy of Canoga Park, Calif., who will fly a North American P-51 Mustang, and Flight Lt. O. A. Hayden-Baillie of Calgary, Canada, who will fly a Hawker Sea Fury.

Haydon-Baillie, the only non-American pilot entered, vows, "I'm going to win this race for the Royal Air Force." Noting that former RAF war ace Peter Townsend will be a spectator at the finish line, Hayden-Baillie said, "I'm not going to let the RAF down. My plane is in peak condition and I'm going to run."

In addition to Mustangs and a Sea Fury, other aircraft in the race include Bearcats, Corsairs, a Spitfire and a P-38 Lightning. The race is open to unlimited-type aircraft which are propeller-driven.

483 World Speed Record
Other leading race pilots competing in the race are Darryl Greenamyer of Los Angeles, holder of the world speed record for propeller-driven aircraft at 483.041 mph; Lyle Shelton, Los Alamitos, Calif.; Richard Kestle, Columbus, Ga.; Michael Leonic, Boise, Idaho; Dr. Burns Byram, Marengo, Iowa; Gunther Balz, Kalamazoo, Mich.; Vernon Thrope, Jerry Levitz, Dallas; and Bill Hogan, Hamilton, Ohio.

The race will open a three-day airshow at Civic Memorial Airport.

The race will open a three-day airshow at Civic Memorial Airport.

Reunion for RAF Ace
Peter Townsend, RAF fighter ace in World War II, will participate in the "Mustang Scramble"—a reunion for former U.S. P-51 combat pilots — at Civic Memorial.

The reunion will be held in conjunction with the World War II airshow and P-51 air racing competition at the airport over the Memorial Day weekend.

L. D. "Baron" Volkmer, sponsor of the event, has announced that Col. Erich Hartmann, Germany's top-scoring ace of World War II, will be a participant in the reunion.

Many U.S. P-51 fighter pilots also are expected to attend.

Venue Pilot to Perform
The Air Barons, Navy jet demonstration team, will come here from the Glenview, Ill., Naval Air Station to perform Sunday and Monday. The team includes Liuet. Don Wells of Venice.

Townsend, who now lives near Paris, spent down 12 German planes and received the Distinguished Service Order and Distinguished Flying Cross as an RAF pilot. He is the author of the recently-published book, "Duel of Angels," a history of the RAF and German Luftwaffe preceding and during the Battle of Britain.

Accompanying Townsend to the reunion will be his wife, Marie-Luce Jamsagne, a Belgian, whom he married in 1959. They are expected to arrive in this area Friday for the reunion activities.

In 1944, King George VI made Townsend his equerry with the responsibility of maintaining the horses of the royal household. He later received worldwide notice by becoming engaged to Princess Margaret. The engagement was broken after publicity concerning his previous divorce.

353 Aerial Victories
Hartmann is making a lecture tour covering several cities prior to the reunion. During World War II, he was officially credited with 353 aerial victories, mostly on the Eastern front against the Russians.

He survived 14 crash landings and spent 10 years following the war in a Russian prison camp.

Civic Memorial Airport will be prepared for fly-ins during the May 29-31 air show, racing and reunion activities.

The new SPINAL-GUARD mattress by King Koil is zoned to provide more support in the middle of the mattress where the heaviest part of your body is.

This illustration shows your sleeping posture on a mattress that does not give adequate support. The center part of your body can actually sag down and out of the normal posture position line.

Here's what the International Chiropractors Association has to say about SPINAL-GUARD

"King Koil SPINAL-GUARD is the only sleep set designed and constructed specifically to meet the recommendations of the mattress committee of the INTERNATIONAL CHIROPRACTORS ASSOCIATION."

Here's SPINAL-GUARD at work providing more support where it's really needed to keep your body in sleeping posture.

The sections at either end of the entire support area are built for maximum comfort too. And, in addition, SPINAL-GUARD features the famous King Koil Fun-Flex non-sag edge construction. It is filled with non-allergic upholstery.

SUPPORT PLUS
The entire center of the mattress is reinforced with extra springs. On top of the heaviest part of your body, SUPPORT PLUS reinforces the heaviest of sleeping posture.
